EDINBURGH'S 101

In celebration of Scotland's Year of History, Heritage and Archaeology 2017, experts have carefully selected 101 of Edinburgh's most intriguing treasures, each ready to be experienced at locations all around the city. From the prestigious to the prosaic, every object has an important tale to tell and the list - carefully curated by a panel chaired by Edinburgh World Heritage – provides a unique insight into our city's story.

Buried amongst the curiosities are several mementoes of the anniversaries that Edinburgh is celebrating this year: it is 70 years since the city exploded with arts festivals and 250 years since Edinburgh decided to expand with a plan for a New Town bringing even more treasures.

Visit the bespoke website (Edinburgh.org/101) to see a snapshot of each object and its story. To assist rifling such a vast trove, it has been sorted into themes: Building a City; Arts & Performance; Books, Words & Ideas; City of Innovation; Everyday Living; Faith & Nation; On the Dark Side.
